LOCALS

Tom Smith, had three fingers cut so badly while operating a joiner at the C. L. King and Company's factory that amputation was necessary. Smith was taken to Dr. Mersen who dressed the wound.

Printed bulletins of the service announcements of the week were used in Hope church Sunday. The bulletins bear on the cover a half-tone of the church and are gotten up in a neat and attractive form.

Rev. N. F. Jenkins the Prohibition candidate for Congress, who this week addressed large audiences in Ionia and Kent counties, closes his campaign with a big mass meeting in Price's rink Saturday night.

George and John Ramerman have been enrolled as students of the Preparatory Department of Hope College. Messrs Ramerman's home is in Alfalfa, Washington, and they have been students at the John Calvin College at Grand Rapids.

Dan Herrick of this city and F. M. Emery of Grand Rapids caught 70 white bass yesterday morning during four hours of fishing. The fish were all of a good size and the seventy five made a fine string of which the two fishermen were justly proud.

The clothing sale of the Stern-Goldman Co. is a great success. The courteous treatment the patrons of this firm always receive tells especially in a sale of this kind. The goods are going fast, showing that the slaughter in prices is having its effects. It is a sale of up-to-date clothing. Full particulars of the sale can be found on page two of this issue.

O. E. Holkeboer suffered two broken ribs as the result of the running away of a team which he was driving near the gravel pits, Friday. Dr. Poppen attended the injured man who was taken to his home at 20 East Fifteenth street. No serious results are feared.

Cornelius Van den Bosch, who recently purchased an interest in the large J. Van den Bosch Co. store, commenced his work as salesman there this week. Mr. Van den Bosch is extensively known as a business man and can very efficiently fill the place which is made vacant by the departure of Jacob Van den Bosch to Arkansas—Zeeland Record.

The city council is up in arms against the alleged conduct of certain team drivers of the city whom Alderman Van den Berg claims make it a practice to drive through funeral processions. Alderman Van den Berg made a motion that a suitable ordinance be passed to cover this offense, and at the meeting of the council Wednesday evening steps were taken in this direction.

H. Bruar was arrested Tuesday charged by Florist Dutton with the theft of some young plants. Shortly after Bruar paid Mr. Dutton a visit the plants were missed and later were found in Bruar's possession. When arraigned before Justice Van Duren, Bruar demanded an examination which was set for Friday morning.

Andrew Hyma, of the U. S. Navy, a son of Henry Hyma of this city, is spending a ten days furlough with his parents. Andrew, who is a former Hope student, entered the medical departments of the navy, ten months ago and has been stationed at Norfolk, W. Va. He is at present recuperating from a severe illness and will return next week to Norfolk.

Sunday morning at the Grace Episcopal church the marriage took place of Hugh Bradshaw and Ernestine Routzke both of Chicago. Mr. Bradshaw is a prominent business man of Chicago. He spends his summers at Macatawa Park, where he owns a cottage. Mr. Bradshaw has made many friends here during his stays at the park.

Rev. Henry Mulder, who was installed as pastor of the Christian Reformed church at Plainfield last Sunday went to Fremont yesterday to perform the marriage ceremony of George W. Deur of Holland and Miss Gertrude Vredevelde of Fremont. Mr. and Mrs. Deur will make their home in this city. They expect to return to this city tomorrow and invitations have been sent out to their friends to attend the wedding reception at their new home 7 West Sixteenth street to-morrow evening.

Gerrit De Witt was fined $25 and costs or thirty days by Justice Van Duren Monday morning. De Witt who is an old offender, had managed in some way to get hold of some liquor Saturday evening which put him in a fighting mood. Officer Kieft was compelled to take him in charge. De Witt took the 30 days. Two other offenders George W. Scott and Fred Logen, arrested by Officer Steketee, pleaded guilty to a drunk charge and were released on suspended sentence.

On the last Friday of each month the mothers of the children enrolled in the Central kindergarten will meet to discuss problems of child education and to study the life and methods of Froebel the great German educator who started the idea of the kindergarten. This is a new scheme, started as a result of the gathering of seventeen mothers in the kindergarten rooms last week. This co operation will undoubtedly prove to be of great benefit.

Rev. H. P. Boot, on his way to the China mission fields, in a letter posted on the steamer "Mongolia" writes that there are 68 missionaries with him on board the vessel. Among this number are representatives of 15 Mission Boards and one Y. M. C. A. These missionaries with their 16 children come from 22 states of the Union. Of this number of missionaries 31 will engage in pedagogical work, 10 in medical work and 24 will devote their efforts to the work of the gospel ministry. Thirty-three go to China, 14 to Japan, 12 to the Philippines, seven to Korea and one to India.

Congressman Diekema is considered one of the most efficient vote getters of the campaign in this section of the state. Many Holland-Americans are lining up with the Republicans force as a result of Congressman Diekema's activities. Rev. N. F. Jenkins, the prohibition candidate for Mr. Diekema's seat in Congress held a meeting at the Soldiers Home in Grand Rapids last week. Congressman Diekema spoke early this week at the home. In former years the old soldiers have always stood by the candidate of the Republican party.

Rev. Gerrit J. Pennings left today for Arabia where he is under appointment by the Board of Foreign Missions of the Reformed church to serve as a missionary. Mr. Pennings received the appointment last spring before he graduated for the ministry. Rev. Pennings is a graduate of Hope College and the Western Theological Seminary. During his student days in this city he was a member of the Third Reformed church Sunday evening he gave a farewell address from the pulpit of that church. Rev. Pennings home is in Orange City, Iowa, and his home church there will pay his expenses in the mission field.

Mr. Stowe of near Fennville has invented a novel folding chair, and John C. Stein and others are using their influence to try to get it manufactured. The chair when folded looks like an ordinary block of wood, about 18 inches tall and eight inches wide, but when opened is a fine, large, upholstered chair. Mr. Stowe got the idea while in a crowded opera house, where the chairs were much in the way in getting out. This chair can be shut up by a mere touch of the foot. It is hoped this will be added to the list of our manufactured articles. Mr. Stowe has the patent for the United States and Canada.

Petty thefts and burglaries have been reported to the police during the past week from four different sources. Friday the Brad and Wabbe homes were entered and a few trinkets and valuables were taken from each place. Saturday night, or Sunday morning, the store of John Farma on West Twelfth street was entered by burglars; and on the same night a box car standing near the Pere Marquette freight depot was looted. From the fact that in both of the latter robberies the articles taken were wearing apparel and supplies of other kinds, it is believed by the officers that the work in both cases was carried on by the same gang. No clue was left in either case, but the officers believe that the work was done by a gang of tramps. Chief of Police Kamferbeek and Detective Johnson of the Pere Marquette have been working on the cases, but without result up to the present time.

You lose your vote unless you register Oct. 30 and 31.

Cornelius Traas, janitor of the Central avenue Christian Reformed church, had the misfortune to fall from a step ladder Tuesday afternoon sustaining a severe fracture of the shoulder.

Bert Bouwman, employed in the West Michigan Steam laundry, was seriously injured yesterday morning while running the washer. His arm caught in the pulley and, but for the young man's quick action, he might have been whirled to death in the machinery. The arm was bruised terribly but no bones were broken.

Planning to outdo the Republicans, the Democrats have made arrangements to hold a red fire and fireworks parade next Monday night. The Republicans have been making plans for the kind of a celebration on the night before election for a long time and it was something of a surprise to them to learn that the Democrats were planning a similar affair. An effort is being made to arrange the two parades so as to avoid meeting on the same streets.

Doubtless one of the most entertaining numbers of the Hope college lecture course this year will be the Opie Read entertainment. Opie Read is one of the few humorists that have made a career of a distinctive department of literature. The first number of the course will be given November 12th, when the famous Victor's Venetian Band will give a musical entertainment. The other numbers in the course are Leland T. Powers, Vernon C. H. R.ington, Dr. Chas. H. Tyndall and Judge Ben Lindsey. The prices for course tickets are $1.50, $2.00 and $2.50. For the time of reserving seats, see advertisement on last page.

Supt. W. T. Bishop and many of the teachers of the local schools will attend the fifty sixth annual convention of the Michigan State Teacher's association to be held at Saginaw, October 28, 29 and 30. The local schools will remain open and substitute teachers will be secured to fill the places of those teachers attending the convention. The program contains the names of some of the best speakers in the country. The general sessions will be addressed by Dean L. H. Bailey of Cornell University; Pres. E. B. Bryan, of Franklin College; Prof. W. C. Hewitt, of the Oshkosh Normal; Pres. F. W. Gunsaulus, of Armour Institute; Senator William Alden Smith, and a colleague whom he brings with him. The Michigan men who will speak before the general sessions are Supt. W. G. Coburn, Battle Creek, who is president of the association; Hon. W. R. Burt, Saginaw; Hon. L. L. Wright, state superintendent of Public Instruction; Pres. L. H. Jones, State Normal College; and Dean John O. Reed of the University.

Hope College

A nine piece Orchestra has been organized in the College under the leadership of George Damson. The faculty is taking great interest in the new movement as is evidenced by the fact that they have donated to the orchestra a large assortment of good sheet music.

The orchestra, which has been organized for the purpose of furnishing music at all college functions, is something new for the college. Although attempts have been made in former years to establish a good orchestra this is the first one that bids fair to be successful. Mr. Damson says that he has never seen an orchestra start out with so much promise, and that the new orchestra is something of which the college and its patrons can well be proud.

Republican Rally Monday Night

Monday night the last gun of the Republican campaign in this city will be fired. Real red hot fireworks will be used in this firing of the campaign gun. The demonstration as planned by the Republicans of this city, will be something like the launching of the Diekema boom in Holland two years ago, when both Democrat and Republican sang so lustily that good old tune that has become a local campaign classic, "For Diekema Goes to Congress Just the Same." There will be a street parade, band music, fire works and all the other accessories of a good rousing campaign speech.

Congressman Diekema will be the principal speaker of the evening. Both national and state issues will be discussed in the course of the evening. The big rally will be held in Price's Auditorium and everybody is invited. The parade will begin at 7:30. All the different Taft clubs will be present and plentiful yells and campaign songs will be given to make the demonstration a rousing one.

Ordered Bills Taken Down

Last night's presentation of "The Devil" at Prices Theater drew a large crowd anxious to see this well known show. The play was well played and the cast of characters comprising the company, did justice to the production. The play is the antithesis of what its title might imply to some. It is an eminently moral play and is rather a relief in a regime of cheap vaudeville and colorless moving pictures.

The management of the play received rather a set back in their plans Monday evening when they were ordered to take down their bills advertising the show from the electric light poles. Protests had been made by various people against putting up the bills, and an ordinance was found which covered such cases. The management was given 24 hours in which to remove the bills from the poles owned by the city.

The feeling against the play was made manifest Monday and Tuesday when Mr. Price, the owner of the theater, received numerous telephone calls from patrons of his skating rink saying that they would boycott his rink if he allowed the play to go on. But the play did go on and was a success. And the press agents of the show received more free advertising out of the protest against the play than any number of bills could have given them.

At The Majestic

"Marrying Mary," Edwin Miltons Royle's musical play, in which Florence Gear and a large singing company appear at the Majestic this week for a whole week's engagement, has all the charms of a fascinating comedy, with the added beauty of good music.

Imagine a young and pretty woman of the world exquisite in every detail of dress and manner, calmly telling her lover that she has been married before—"a little"—and then introducing to him a United States senator, a Mormon bishop and a young man about town, as her three ex-husbands! And her lover the vice-president of the Anti-Divorce league! Imagine the entrance upon the scene of the rector of the fashionable of Newport, who is willing to put up with the scandal attendant upon marrying a divorced woman, to be able to call the charming Mary the wife of his clerical bosom. Also imagine the entree of the father of the young lover coming to pay his son's debts and to drag him away from the seductive wiles of the "imposter"—imagine this father falling in love with her and determining to win her away from the infatuated son. To add to the hilarity each of the three ex-husbands demands the lady as his own, claiming that the divorce was not properly granted. Here, then, is one lone little girl, claimed by six men, each ready to do and dare for her, all that may be demanded of her protector. Some musical novelties introduced in "I'm So Lonely" and "Starland" are making tremendous hits. The chorus giving a special feature of the production.

The members of the Hamilton Cornet band are rapidly gaining in their music, and on the occasion of a grand Republican rally in this village the latter part of last week, they were loudly encored by the Republican speakers and citizens. The speakers were Messrs. Bates, Fouch and Hamilton respectively.

From all parts of the country in the near vicinity hunters flock here in quest of game, in which this part of the township abounds.

The Republican rally in this village last week was a grand affair, and nearly the entire population turned out to hear what the orators had to say. The interruption of a few Heman's followers, was all that marred the occasion. Dr. Rigmink of this village was chosen chairman.

THE TRUE TEST

Tried in Holland It Has Stood the Test.

Farmers are busy hauling sugar beets to the factory at Holland.

Not much corn has been husked yet on account of the dry weather this fall.

The youngest child of J. Timmer is ill with croup.

Mrs. Wicher Brouwer and Mrs. Henry Maat are also on the sick list. Henry Arnoldink spent Sunday with relatives in Holland.

Miss Clara Sweeney of Grand Rapids, is visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Wm. Nienhuis and family spent Sunday in Holland.

Miss Katie Redder, who is working in Holland, spent Sunday with her parents.

The Misses Tillie and Sena Eel man are spending several days visiting relatives and friends in Grand Rapids.

New Factory for Holland

Evidencing the steady progress and growth of the city despite the hard times which have made investors in most localities chary of investing in late propositions, a brand new manufacturing company has been formed among Holland capitalists which will shortly start work on a factory which will employ from 30 to 50 men the year around.

The company is the "New Century Rod and Bolt" company, capitalized at $15,000 and its output will be a patented telescopic fishing rod and a patented bait minnow which are regarded by the anglers who have inspected them as the best thing of the sort ever put on the market. The rod is a seamless steel make-up which has been on the market several years being manufactured under the name of its inventor, J. B. Fischer of Chicago.

They are made in all sized in length and for all purposes, but their chief advantage over the ordinary steel rod consists in the telescopic feature, as a ten foot rod is instantly converted a stub which can be packed in a suit case or carried in an inside pocket. The minnow which will be manufactured is a spring actuated affair said to be a sure killer.

Barring the inventor, Mr. Fisher, the incorporators of the new company are all Zeeland and Holland people, and ground has already been secured on East Twenty-Second street next to the furnace works, where work will be begun on a factory at once. Bids have been secured for a building 30x80 where the company will commence the manufacture of the rods. The promoters hope to start in the new quarters by December 1, and will employ 20 men at the outset.

Th Standard Bearers of the M. E. church will hold a Halloween social at the home of Mrs. Ederle on West Ninth street this Friday evening. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. Grace Comstock, manager of the Postal Telegraph office, has returned from a two month's trip thru the east.

Mission Rallies in Chicago

The Board of Domestic Missions and the Women's Executive committee of the Reformed church in America began a series of home mission rallies in Chicago on Tuesday of this week. The rallies will last until November 9, ending up in Albany, N. Y., and as many church centers between the two points will be reached as the time and distance to be traveled will permit. For the churches of Holland and vicinity the following meetings have been planned to be held Tuesday and Wednesday, October 27 and 28. On Tuesday, October 27 afternoon meetings will be held at Vriesland, Hamilton and Jamestown and evening meetings in Overisel and Jamestown. On Wednesday afternoon meetings will be held at Beaverdam and South Blendon and evening meetings at New Holland and in the First Reformed and Hope churches of this city. The speakers for these meetings will include Mrs. John S. Allen, corresponding secretary of the Women's Executive committee of the Board of Domestic Missions, Mrs. Alfred R. Page, field secretary for Indian work of the Women's Executive committee, Rev. Seth Vander Werf, pastor of the First Reformed church, Pella, Ia., Rev. Isaac W. Gowen, D. D., pastor of the Grove Reformed church, New Durham, N. J., and Member of the Board of Domestic Missions, and Rev. J. Brownlee Voorhees, corresponding secretary of the Board of Domestic Missions. In addition to these, local pastors and leaders will participate in the rallies. At the meetings to be held in this city, speakers will be assigned as follows:

First Reformed church, Rev. S. Vander Werf, formerly pastor of that church, Rev. Gowen and Mrs. Allen; Hope church, Mrs. Page, Rev. Voorhees, Rev. Gowen and Mrs. Allen. It is the purpose of these rallies to stimulate interest in domestic mission work and to present the cause in its larger aspects to the churches.

The hardest test is the test of time, and Doan's Kidney Pills have stood it well in Holland. Kidney sufferers can hardly ask for stronger proof than the following:

Mrs. M. Van Houten, 287 W. Thirteenth street, Holland, Mich., says: "I was a sufferer from kidney trouble for a great many years. The pains through my back and loins and under my shoulder blades caused me untold agony and at times I could hardly bend or exert myself in any way. Whenever I caught cold it always settled in my kidneys, greatly aggravating my suffering. As a further indication of kidney trouble, my secretions became irregular in action and unnatural in appearance. I was very restless during the day and at night was unable to secure refreshing sleep. I finally procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Doesburg's drug store and I had used them only a short time when I was cured. I gave a statement telling of the above facts in 1900 and I am very glad to confirm the same now. I have appealed to Doan's Kidney Pills on several occasions since and they have always given the most satisfactory results."

For Sale by all Dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, Sole Agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

Woman's Literary Club

The meeting of the Woman's Literary club held at the home of Mrs. A. D. Goodrich Tuesday afternoon was largely attended. Responses to roll call were early chroniclers.

Mrs. C. M. McLean read a paper on the English language showing how the speech of England has come down to us through different periods of transition.

Miss Myrtle Beach read a very interesting paper on Henry Purcell, England's greatest creative composer who is said to have been the inspiration and model of Haendel and many other of the later composers. He lived far in advance of his time and was organist at Westminster Cathedral and is buried under the organ there. He died of tuberculosis. Among his writings are the music to Shakespeare's "The Tempest" Dryden's "King Arthur," Ufey's "Don Quixote," etc. His church music was collected and edited by Vincent Novello in 1826. Miss Beach's paper was illustrated by two of Purcell's songs, Miss Mae Van Drezer singing very effectively. "I attempt from Love-sickness to fly," the melody of which bears out the assertion of Purcell's biographers that Haendel took many of his themes from the English composer and Miss Beach sang very pleasingly "What Shall I do" from Purcell's opera, "Diocletian."

Miss Covey read a pleasing selection from Ople Read, who is famous for his southern sketches. The latter part of the program was given over to the reports of the delegates sent to the State Federation at Traverse City. Mrs. R. N. De Merell reported on the first day of the convention telling in a very attractive way of the trip to Traverse City, the reception of the delegates, the first sessions of the convention and the reception given at the Masonic Temple on Wednesday evening, October 21.

Mrs. G. J. VanDuren told interestingly of the Thursday and Friday sessions of the convention giving short extracts from some of the addresses given. The federation will go to Hillsdale next year. For lack of time the federation reports were necessarily brief. Mrs. Fannie M. Cleary of St. Joseph, chairman of the reciprocity committee of the state federation, who is the guest of Mrs. H. P. Burkholder, was the guest of the club yesterday and spoke a few words of greeting. An invitation from the Diekema Republican club to the Woman's Literary club, inviting them to participate in the Republican rally at Prices rink Monday evening, Nov. 2, was read.

Many ills come from impure blood. Can't have pure blood with faulty digestion, lazy liver and sluggish bowels. Burdock Blood Bitters strengthens stomach, bowels and purifies the blood. Itching, torturing skin eruptions disfigure, annoy, drive one wild. Doan's Ointment brings quick relief and lasting cures. Fifty cents at any drug store.

Taft and the Laboring Man

William H. Taft, the Republican candidate for president, is opposed to the blacklist and the boycott. He believes the working men should not be posted and followed like criminals because they have thought best to leave one employer or to take part in strikes. And he does not believe that persons who have had no part in strikes and are not directly interested in them should be compelled to suffer because of their contentions.

The boycott and the blacklist are not American in their origin or in the manner of their procedure. But Mr. Taft believes that working men have the right to organize and he has said so. He believes it is their duty to do their best in a united way to provide for better wages and permanency of employment.

Face to face with thousands of working men in this campaign he has clearly and fully stated to them his views on questions of highest importance to them as individuals and to their organizations, and they have instantly approved and applauded his opinions and his expressions. If only the working men of the United States could vote at the coming election William H. Taft would deserve to be elected at their hands, and every interest that a national election could advance or assist would eloquently appeal to working men in behalf of the election of Taft and his republican associates.

And every day's progress in the present campaign is making that fact more apparent and more persuasive.

Another Plume for Diekema

Congressman Washington Gardner of Albion in a speech in Ionia, Monday night, said this of the able member from the fifth district:

"In your congressman, Gerrit J. Diekema, you have a growing citizen, one of the best men in Michigan. A man of character. A man of ability. You were indeed fortunate in the selection of your congressman to succeed Senator Smith. Mr. Diekema is a man of trained intellect; few men in the house have received so early recognition. The attorneys in congress respect him and look to his opinions, and if he is re-elected as he will be, he will be advanced several numbers among the membership and standing by reason of his mastery ability. You know what he has done for Ionia city, and it was accomplished during his first term. Ionia city ought to give him its vote unanimously."

His Mortgaged Mule vs His Own Automobile

Kokomo, Ind., Oct. 23.—At Lafayette today, while riding to the speaker's stand, Mr. Taft had this note thrust into his hand by a well dressed man:

"Mr. Taft. Twelve years ago I drove a mortgaged mule to this city to hear Mr. Bryan speak. Today I came in my own automobile to hear you. Can you guess who I am going to vote for? E. V. D."

Hard times in England. So say the newspaper reports. Blame the Republican administration.

Cashier Mokma tells us savings deposits are coming in by leaps and bounds. Another sign of hard times.

Lawton T. Hemans made two speeches at the Soo Saturday. And the forest fires didn't wait for the rain to be put out.

In the trip through Indiana "Mrs. Bryan received more attention than her distinguished husband." Indiana always has been more chivalrous than democratic anyway.

$1,850,000 savings deposits in our three local banks means $185 per head. These savings do not all come from the highest salaried workmen but from the thrifty medium salaried wage earner. Many of the high salaried ones are now broke for reasons best known to themselves.

A few days before the election of 1896 Senator James K. Jones sent out an official bulletin stating that Mr. Bryan would certainly receive 252 electoral votes. He got 176. In 1900 Chairman Jones announced on November 3: "The fight is won." The Bryan electoral vote went down to 155. In the course of time a game of bluff becomes monotonous.

Chairman Mack, the head of the Democratic National Campaign Committee, is a native of Canada. It is rather a cool proposition that Our Lady of the Snows should furnish the chief strategist of the Democratic party of the United States. This once untortured organization seems to have lost confidence in home talent. Mr. Mack can never be president, but may perhaps be on the Bryan slate for secretary of state.

What they think of Warner's chances in Detroit is reflected in the fact that Billy Considine, the well-known Detroit sportsman, has posted odds offering to bet six to one that Taft wins and five to one that Warner wins. There has been some disaffection in Wayne county, but it doesn't look as if it was widespread. State Chairman Diekema says that every mail brings him letters from people who were for Bradley and are now out working for Warner. Mr. Diekema says the entire state ticket will be elected.

You lose your vote unless you register Oct. 30 and 31.

An eminent nerve specialist is advising Chicago society women "to the farm to recuperate and live out of doors." Yes, but how do the farmers feel about it.

Oklahoma should have had at least the Democratic discretion to wait until after election before denouncing Mr. Bryan's guarantee of bank deposits, in practice in Oklahoma.

Many of the good people of Holland who doubtless believe that there is a great deal in a name, protested against "The Devil." Some religious writer of very poor literary ability, a couple of years ago wrote a book on "Sermons of the Devil" which many good people read with pious interest. Would those who protested against "The Devil" taboo "Faust" if it bore the more appropriate name of "The Devil"?

An important reason why the voters of Michigan should favor Gov. Warner is the service he rendered them in securing the enactment of the two cent passenger fare law. This law has made a vast saving to the people of Michigan in addition to enabling thousands of people to take trips which previous to its enactment had been denied them. The passage of the recent railroad commission law was also directly due to the efforts of Gov. Warner. This law has already been of great benefit to the people and it promises to produce still better results as time goes by. While not as perfect as could be wished, it is the best possible law that could be passed last year in view of the strenuous fight made against it.

The farmers of Michigan will be loyal to Governor Warner and the entire republican state ticket. Not only has Governor Warner's administration been helpful to them directly, through a lower tax rate, and an increase in primary school money, the reduction in railroad fare, the better freight shipment facilities provided; but all the important measures for the peoples' interests that have been the especial fruits of Governor Warner's service have made him the favorite of the farmers. And taxpayers in the cities and villages will support Governor Warner for the same good reasons that are given by the farmers.

No years in all the history of Michigan have been more fortunate for the people of the state and its taxpayers than have the years of Gov. Warner's administration. During Governor Warner's service the income to the state treasury almost doubled, the receipts for this year exceeding six millions of dollars, while the total expenses of the state will be about four millions. This increase in state earnings is distributed through every school district in the state and lowers by so much the school taxes of each city and village and country district. This situation should appeal in behalf of Governor Warner's administration to every voter and taxpayer.

"The state of Michigan is bankrupt," declared the democratic candidate for governor. "The state of Michigan is not bankrupt," promptly replied the state treasurer. There is more than $1,600,000 in the state treasury at the present time and every bill and claim against the state has been paid and will be promptly paid. Just what purpose a candidate for governor should have in making such a statement is not plain, but that his purpose was not to tell the truth or to help his state in any way is very evident. And the charges which Mr. Hemans has made against Governor Warner have been disposed of in the same prompt and thorough manner.

Re-Register To-Morrow and Saturday
If you want to vote for president

CONGRESSMAN DIEKEMA.

We quote the following from the Grand Rapids Herald:

"Congressman Diekema is making a dignified yet energetic campaign for re-election. Wherever he appears he is making friends. He is the sort of a man who bears acquaintance and close inspection. The closer he gets to the people of this district, the surer will be his claim upon their suffrage, for he is of the right stuff.

"It is gratifying that his opponent is equally clean in personality, for it assures a clean campaign; and clean campaigns are a pleasure in these days of villifying tendency. With personality eliminated, the voters can confine themselves to the logic of the situation; and the logic cannot be denied that Congressman Diekema has earned re-election.

"He is the leading first-term in the Sixtieth congress. That means much. It means prestige for the district and prestige for Grand Rapids. It means that when we have opinions to be voiced and demands to be answered, congress will take heed. The searchlight of official Washington is the most piercing ray to which a man can be subjected. When Washington declares Mr. Diekema to be the leading first-term of the Sixtieth congress, it gives him credentials which his district cannot afford to overlook. It demonstrates that he has made good in the capital, where he is sent by us for the purpose of making good; and it demonstrates that we honor ourselves by honoring him.

"Congressman Diekema is a strong man; honest in principle, sincere in purpose, painstaking in effort, successful in his work. Republican in sympathy and motive. He has earned a re-election."

WARNER'S FAIR EXPLANATION.

"The business failure of State Treasurer Glazier and the relation of the state to that incident, has been made the subject of attacks upon myself and my administration which have not in the slightest been deserved," said Governor Warner a few days ago.

"There is no fact connected with that affair which I wish to conceal. There was no act of mine relating to the affairs of Mr. Glazier which I am not willing to publicly and fully make known. Up to the time last fall when rumors of Mr. Glazier's financial embarrassment reached me I had always believed that his business interests were in good condition. This was the common belief shared in, as the evidence has since shown, by careful and conservative bankers who loaned him money in very large amounts. I never had doubted either his financial or moral integrity, and the news of his financial embarrassment came to me as a bolt out of a clear sky. After investigation I promptly demanded his resignation. I never interfered with his bank deposits of state moneys. In fact, I had no legal right to do so. As governor, under the law, I have no more right to say as to where the state funds shall be deposited than has any other citizen. During my service as governor, requests have come to me for the deposit of state money in this bank or that bank, and in the ordinary course of business all such requests have been forwarded to the state treasurer with the suggestion that if he deemed it advisable that he comply with the request.

"I allowed no personal considerations to stand in the way of my official duty to the people, nor was I under any obligation to Mr. Glazier which could prevent me from doing so. In common with other citizens of the state, he contributed to my campaign expenses in 1904. His total contributions were $500, a sum which, in view of his supposed great wealth and the interest which he took in the success of the state ticket upon which he was a candidate, was not excessive. During that same campaign I borrowed and received at one time from the Chelsea bank the sum of $5,000 and gave an interest bearing note for that amount, which note was from time to time renewed and renewed for the balance, until finally paid in full with interest. No other money was ever borrowed by me either from Mr. Glazier or from the Chelsea bank. The bitter personal attacks made upon me because of my prompt action to secure his removal from office may be regarded by some people as legitimate campaign material, but I do not believe that such methods will be approved by the fair-minded citizens of Michigan, whose interests my action served and protected."

THE NEW CONSTITUTION.

One of the most important questions to be submitted to the voters of Michigan at the coming election is the adoption of the revised or new constitution. The old constitution was framed in 1850, and while yet good, the state has outgrown it in many respects. The vital principles of the old have been retained in the new, but many new and important features have been added to bring the instrument up to date and more in keeping with the growth and progress of this great commonwealth. It is impossible to name all the changes and new ideas incorporated in the new document, but surely most of the electors who are the least bit interested have read the copies distributed last summer. We believe the new constitution should be adopted. It is not a perfect instrument, perhaps; man can scarcely hope to reach perfection on this earth; but that the new is an improvement over the old in a lot of important subjects we submit as a truth beyond contradiction. Some of the important features are these:

State census eliminated, which will save $200,000 every tenth year.

Majority of legislature may take matter from committee, which kills committee rule.

Legislation by bill, which prevents legislation by joint and concurrent resolutions.

Bills must be printed at least five days before any action is taken on them.

Referendum on all local acts.

Governor may veto items in appropriation bills.

Laws must be published within 60 days after legislature adjourns.

Legislature may fix hours of labor for women and children.

Submission of good roads laws made easier and amount they may be raised is increased.

Secretary of state placed in line of succession to governor.

Attorney general made member of state board of auditors.

Supreme court must file opinions in all matters decided by it.

Supreme court placed on salary and fees of office turned into state treasury.

Supervisors may raise one-tenth of one mill on county valuation for repair of public buildings, bridges, etc.

Appeals may be taken from action of boards of supervisors.

Authority of supervisors extended over navigable streams.

Establishment of county hospitals for infectious diseases and of county infirmaries provided for.

Referendum required on franchise grants in cities, townships and villages.

Home rule granted cities and villages in giving them power to frame, adopt, and amend their own charters.

Cities and villages may sell water, heat, light, and power beyond their corporate limits to the extent of 25 per cent of that furnished within their limits.

Cities, villages and townships given control of their streets, alleys and highways.

Provisions made for taxing the property of express, telephone, telegraph, freight, and other car companies.

Surrender of power of taxation by either state or municipal authorities forbidden.

Reforestation by the state permitted.

GOMPERS ASSAILED MY MINER.

James S. Clarke, vice president of district 5, Pittsburg, United Mine Workers of America, has laid himself open again to the democratic charge that he has been "promised something," a charge which is made against all labor leaders who do not follow Mr. Gompers.

In the forthcoming issue of the Labor World, published at Pittsburg, Mr. Clarke denies Mr. Gompers has any right to attempt to "tie up" the vote of labor unions and furthermore says that in doing so he is followed by only two of the labor officials—Morrison and Lennon, both democrats.

"The fact," says Mr. Clarke, "that the hundreds of thousands who make up the trade union movement are not agreed on any political policy or party is sufficient proof that Mr. Gompers is exceeding his authority in making a political tour throughout the country in the name of organized labor in favor of the democrats. This course should be denounced by every trade unionist."

"The truth is that there is more reason why Gompers should tour the country in favor of the socialists than in favor of the democrats, who are treating our fellow miners like dogs in the south."

"Gompers is pursuing a course which lays him open to suspicion, and lots of people now think his policy has become a personal one."

"Let every wage worker, and particularly coal miners, please themselves as to whom they will vote for. We want deeds, and I want to say that there are many important questions to be considered besides the injunction. That is only one. We all as wage workers must look primarily to that policy which best upholds our industrial welfare."

CONGRESSMAN ADDRESSES THE SOLDIERS ON ISSUES OF THE CAMPAIGN.

One of the best meetings held by Congressman Diekema during the present campaign was that at the Soldiers' home in Grand Rapids Tuesday.

The concert hall of the institution was crowded, and the old soldiers applauded Mr. Diekema freely. Commandant Turner was not able to be present, having an attack of typhoid fever, and Sergt. Maj. George D. Borden acted as chairman of the meeting.

A. H. Vandenberg was the first speaker, and announced that he came to say some of the things about Mr. Diekema that could not be uttered, for modesty, by the candidate in person. Mr. Vandenberg then paid a high tribute to the influence at Washington of the Fifth district representative.

"If you men want your demands voiced by a voice that will be heard, you must utter them through the mouth of a Republican, for this is a government by party and the majority is as sure to remain Republican as anything is sure on this earth," said Mr. Vandenberg.

Mr. Diekema spoke of his efforts in behalf of the pensioners, at Washington, telling a story of a widow's pension to show that a congressman who is alert to the interests of his constituents can do much for them.

"There is nothing too great for the people of this country to do for you boys, for you are the ones who made possible our grand nation of today," he said.

Mr. Diekema told with what friendship congressmen who have been on opposite sides of the great war, greet each other at Washington, and turned it to good account in his own case.

"You know we had a fight here two years ago," he said, laughingly. "I couldn't make Huntley see things my way, and he couldn't make me see things his. But that's all changed now and there aren't two better friends in politics today than your friend and my friend, Huntley Russell, and myself."

"He'll tell you before the end of the campaign that if you want to do him a favor you will vote for me for congress, and I'll tell you right now that if you want to do me a favor you'll vote for him for state land commissioner, for we're on the same ticket now, though we fought each other two years ago."

Supervisors Have Stormy Session.

Supervisor VanWeelden of the Third ward of Grand Haven was the only supervisor of that city to vote for the majority report of the committee on organization which was passed by a vote of 13 to 11 at the session of the board of supervisors. As a result the supervisor has heard from some of his constituents who followed the doings of the board closely. The principal objection seems to be that the majority report called for a reduction of $80,000 from the amount as assessed, while the minority report placed the reduction in Grand Haven. The minority report was signed by Mr. VanDuren of Holland and Mr. Vos of Grand Haven, members of the committee who refused to accept the table of the majority. The Holland supervisors voted solid for the minority table which called for a reduction of $302,000 for Holland, instead of $175,000 which the adopted report provides. In the reports as adopted no additions have been made to any of the townships, while in the report signed by Messrs. VanDuren and Vos, $198,468 addition was assigned to Spring Lake, Tallmadge, Zeeland township, Jamestown, Chester and Crockerby. The opponents of the minority measure put up the claim that the additions were put on the above townships for the sake of giving Holland the $302,000 reduction. They label the $81,000 reduction for Grand Haven as merely a bait for the Grand Haven supervisors. There is also a sentiment among the country supervisors that Grand Haven supervisors are in Holland supervisors combine against the country. It is claimed that Mr. VanWeelden's position is that he could not honestly support the minority table and that in supporting the majority report he was voting for the table which seemed the fairer of the two.

Al Tanner, Dave Blom, Mart Vander Bie and Bert Cochran returned Friday from South Dakota after a profitable hunting trip. Each man had fifteen ducks, the full amount allowed to be carried away by one man under the South Dakota game laws. The shooting was good and the men were all well pleased with the result of their trip.

Miss Nellie Foley, employed as head waitress at the Hotel Holland, has received word from the north that the fires there have destroyed her mother's farm buildings, together with this year's crops and a considerable amount of standing timber. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burgoyne and infant son, who occupied the farm, had a narrow escape from the flames. Mrs. Foley was away visiting at the time of the fire and the news, when broken, came as a hard blow to her.

MARINE.

The Indiana Transportation company of Chicago has placed an order for the construction of a new steel passenger boat with a capacity for 2,500 people, to be placed in service next June between Michigan City and Chicago. The new boat will be a companion to the Theodore Roosevelt, and probably will be named Bill. The boat will have five decks and will be 225 feet long and 40 feet in the beam, or slightly larger than the Roosevelt, and one of the largest passenger boats on the lake. The order was placed with the Manitowoc Shipbuilding company of Manitowoc, Wis., and is the only one given this fall for a lake passenger boat. The cost will be $240,000.

Suit Started Against Sheriff

Suit has been filed in the circuit court at Grand Haven by Harry L. Roberts against Frank B. Salisbury and Jesse G. Woodbury through Attorney Collin Campbell of Grand Rapids.

Roberts hails from Tallmadge township and he sets up in his declaration that on February 24, 1908, the defendants with force and arms attacked him with violence, dragged him through the streets and public highways to the jail of Ottawa county.

He was detained in the jail for a long space of time during which time he was compelled to submit to examination and he states, indignities and insults, which were damaging to his dignity and reputation. Roberts was held here on the charge of poisoning cattle owned by one Hutchinson. He sets up in his declaration that his character and reputation have been damaged to the extent of $5,000 and he asks the recovery of that amount.

Social Well Attended

The Halloween social given in the church parlors last evening by the pastor's Bible class of Hope church was attended by about 75 people. The rooms were attractively decorated with corn-stalks; autumn leaves and jack-o'-lanterns cut in grotesque shapes furnished a dim and weird light. The witches' den was very realistic and woe to the person who dared to enter there without jumping over the crossed broom-sticks at the entrance or passing under the ladder guarded by a large black pussy cat without whistling. Deep in her lair, seated by a big black kettle the witch muttered incantations and in a sepulchral voice revealed the future destiny of each visitor giving to each a charm to keep away ill luck. Mrs. R. H. Post played the part of witch. Four ghosts who glided about the rooms moaning and whispering ghost charms in the ears of visitors proved to be the Misses Demarest, Williams, Post and Bosch.

Bobbing for apples and throwing apple parings furnished much amusement and the braves ones visited the chamber of horrors in the basement of the church where ghosts and goblins were rampant and held high carnival while salt and alcohol fires shed a ghostly light.

The neighbors are still wondering who was murdered in the church yard last night but it was only Nick Bosch making ghost noises in the basement. In the contest of cutting a plate of flour in search of a ring, B. D. Keppel, discovered the ring and was obliged to remove it from the flour with his teeth. Henri DeKruif was given a ring by the witch herself, all done up in a walnut shell. Of course it just happened so but watch for Henri's name in the list of marriage licenses next year. A very realistic ghost story was told by Rev. Vander Meulen and Hallowe'en refreshments consisting of pumpkin pie, doughnuts, coffee and sandwiches were served.

Price's Auditorium for Returns

In order to give the very latest and quickest returns of the election, the Diekema club has secured Price's Auditorium for election night, and by special arrangement with the Western Union, will have a direct wire to the hall. This will afford everyone who wishes to follow the trend of the battle in the doubtful states for the presidential electors and for the state officers here in Michigan an easy opportunity to learn the results before the morning.

The Diekema club took up the matter at its administrative session Monday, and plans were made to have the affair one to be remembered. Refreshments will be served in the hall by the ladies of the local lodge. L. O. T. M. while the cigar privileges have been sold to Roy Calkins and the Citizens band will furnish the music.

With little interest in the county ticket, the voters of Holland are taking a keen interest in the campaign in the surrounding districts, and returns from the polls in Grand Rapids and nearby points will be featured at the Auditorium.

Were Well Received

Greeted at the Pere Marquette station by the Hope College Taft club and a crowd of enthusiastic rooters, the Warner party arrived in Holland right on time this afternoon at 2:30 and were conveyed at once to the Central avenue corner in autos, where several speeches were made. Governor Warner, Ex-Governor John T. Rich, Senator Burrows and several nominees for state office on the Republican ticket comprised the party.

Threatening as the weather was, a crowd gathered at the corner long before the coming of the autos, and when Alderman Abe Stephan rose to introduce State treasurer Rich, there was a noisy reception. Rich spoke briefly on the Glazier matter, and was followed by the Governor. Senator Burrows was next, and directed his efforts toward a short presentation of the state issues.

Governor Warner was in fine voice despite two days of almost continuous speaking, but on account of the short stop made his remarks briefly. He touched upon the two points which have been most attacked by the Democratic speakers, the extravagance of his administration and the scandal of the Glazier affair, and showed how little ground there was for outcry on this score.

The special has been greeted along the route today by fine crowds, and the countryside has been dropping its work in order to hear the Republican office seekers. The party ended the first day of the tour with a rousing rally in Kalamazoo last night, and this morning continued west till the Lake Michigan shore was reached at South Haven. Grand Haven is reached this evening and the train goes north over the G. R. I. tomorrow as far as Mackinaw City. The tour will be completed Thursday at Bay City.

MORTGAGE SALE.

Default having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage made by Janie A. Wardsell to Anna M. Steinhart, dated the 28th day of January, A. D. 1907, and recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county of Ottawa, of the state of Michigan, on the 29th day of January, A. D. 1907, in liber 75 of mortgages on page 596, on which there is claimed to be due at the date of this notice the sum of three hundred twenty-seven dollars ($327.00) and an attorney's fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) provided for in said mortgage; and no suit or proceeding at law having been instituted to recover the moneys secured by said mortgage or any part thereof.

Now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and statute in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that on Tuesday, the 10th day of November, A. D. 1908, at two o'clock in the afternoon, I shall sell at public auction to the highest bidder, at the north front door of the court house in Grand Haven, Michigan, (that being the place where the circuit court for the said county of Ottawa is held) the premises described in said mortgage or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount of said mortgage with six per cent interest and all legal costs, together with an attorney's fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) as provided for by law and covenant for therein; the premises being described in said mortgage as follows: All the northwest quarter (N. W. ¼) of the southwest quarter (S. W. ¼) of section fifteen (15) in town five (5) north, of range sixteen (16) west, in the town of Holland, Ottawa county, Michigan, containing forty (40) acres of land according to government survey, be the same more or less.

Poultry Show in December

Ambitious to make a showing in its annual exhibition which will in some way represent the great growth in the club, the Holland Poultry and Pigeon Stock association is laying plans for a poultry show in December which will surpass all other shows of Western Michigan barring none.

The show is scheduled for December 18-22, and it is on the quantity and value of the prizes offered that the local organization counts to secure an enormous entry list of birds. Two $50 cups will doubtless head the list of premiums and several incubators which will be given to the exhibitors showing the best pens.

The sweepstakes will total close to $100, which alone will attract entries from many western Michigan breeders of show stock, and as prizes will be given to the individual birds, there will be a handsome figure coming to the feathered victors.

A number of special prizes of cash and merchandise in the events not on the approved programs will be offered, and Sec. Fred Kleyn is confident that more than 800 birds will be shown.

Charles McClave, the well known poultry expert of New London, O., will judge the exhibits, and the work will be done the first two days of the show which will start in on Friday. Except among the experts, it is not generally known how show birds are scored. The feathers, shape and size are the points which are taken into consideration in awarding the prizes. There are so many points of difference in the birds that competent judging requires high degree of skill, and the club has gone to considerable trouble and expense to secure one of the leaders at judging for the local show.

Interest in the Holland association has steadily grown since its organization, and it now numbers more than 40 breeders of show poultry on its membership list. J. B. Hadden is president of the club, Robert Westveld, treasurer and Fred G. Kleyn secretary. The committee on arrangements has not yet announced where the show will be held, but some prominent location on Eighth street is being urged and it is probable that the old Standart place will be selected. The public is invited.

After a heavy meal take a couple of Doan's Regulets and give your stomach, liver and bowels the help they will need. Regulets bring easy, regular passages of the bowels.

GOOD HOME RECIPE

Get from any good prescription pharmacist the following:

Shake well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful dose after each meal and at bedtime.

The above is considered as the most certain prescription ever written to relieve Backache; Kidney Trouble, Weak Bladder and all forms of Urinary difficulties. This mixture acts promptly on the eliminative tissues of the Kidneys, enabling them to filter and strain the uric acid and other waste matter from the blood which causes Rheumatism.

Some persons who suffer with the afflictions may not feel inclined to place much confidence in this simple mixture, yet those who have tried it say the results are simply surprising, the relief being effected without the slightest injury to the stomach or other organs.

Mix some and give it a trial. It certainly comes highly recommended. It is the prescription of an eminent authority, whose entire reputation, it is said, was established by it.

A druggist here at home, when asked, stated that he could either supply the ingredients or mix the description for our readers, also recommends it as harmless.

For Sore Feet.

"I have found Bucklen's Arnica Salve to be the proper thing to use for sore feet, as well as for healing burns, sores, cuts, and all manner of abrasions," writes Mr. W. Stone of East Poland, Maine. It is the proper thing too for piles. Try it! Sold under guarantee at Walsh Drug Co.'s drug store. 25c.

Why James Lee Got Well.

Everybody in Zanesville, O., knows Mrs. Mary Lee, of rural route 8. She writes: "My husband James Lee, firmly believes he owes his life to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery. His lungs were so severely affected that consumption seemed inevitable, when a friend recommended New Discovery. We tried it, and its use has restored him to perfect health." Dr. King's New Discovery is the King of throat and lung remedies. For coughs and colds it has no equal. The first dose gives relieve. Try it! Sold under guarantee at Walsh Drug Co.'s drug store. 50c and $1.00.

RHEUMATISM RECIPE

A well-known authority on Rheumatism gives the following valuable though simple and harmless, prescription which any one can easily prepare at home:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

He states that the ingredients can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy at a small cost, and, being of vegetable extraction, are harmless to take.

This pleasant mixture, if taken regularly for a few days, is said to overcome almost any case of Rheumatism. The pain and swelling if any diminishes with each dose, until permanent results are obtained, and without injuring the stomach. While there are many so-called Rheumatism remedies, patent medicines, etc., some of which do give relief, few really give permanent results, and the above will, no doubt, be greatly appreciated by many sufferers here at this time.

Inquiry at the drug stores of this neighborhood elicits the information that these drugs are harmless and can be bought separately, or the druggists here will mix the prescription for our readers if asked to.

"The Wolf."

"The Wolf," the second of the successful Eugene Walters' plays, will be presented at Powers' theater for four performances, beginning Thursday, October 29, with a Saturday matinee.

This play is in three acts with a cast of players embracing Augustus Phillips, Joseph Greene, Alice Baxter, Escanillo Fernandez, William Norton, Harry Marshall and others. The scene is laid in northern Canada—the Hudson bay country. The story concerns itself with the affairs of a libertine railroad engineer, who has betrayed one forest-bred girl and is making love to another when the play opens. The brother and sweetheart of the first girl are following him up. The brother is the lover of the second girl. Her father, an embittered man, makes life very unhappy for her and she flies from it with the man she loves. McDonald follows and, catching up with him, the girl moves on with the sweetheart of the dead Annette, while her brother stays to fight it out with McDonald.

This is the third act, which is laid at the portage of the Little Bear river, and the time of day is just after sundown. The stage is darkened and the actors move, whistling across the scene, the dialogue being spoken to the accompaniment of the swish of the waters as they wash up against the banks and in the distance is heard the howling and mournful crying of a pack of timber wolves as they cross the range of hills in the background. This is the great scene of the play and the fight between the brother and the engineer goes on in a semi-darkness that leaves the audience in doubt as to who is winning. A flash of light from a match shows that the right man has conquered, and the play ends happily in a prospective marriage between the woodland lovers.

WHAT YOU SAW IN THIS PAPER

35 Years ago To-day.

We learn that the new school Board has received a summons to be and appear before the Supreme Court at Lansing on the 2nd of December next to show cause why they are usurping the powers of School Officers in this city.

WHAT YOU SAW 30 YEARS AGO

The immense improvements of Cappon & Bertsch tannery building is nearing completion, under the master hand of Mr. J. R. Kleyn. By the late enlargement and improvements the capacity of the tannery is considerably increased. It is the boast of our little city to say that we have the two largest tanneries in the State.

Just as we went to press last night we were informed that the large "three-and-a-half" schooners "Woo-ruff, America, Australia"—and one more, whose name we did not learn—were beached at Grand Haven yesterday.

The crews of these large vessels, stranding on the outer bar—were rescued with difficulty, requiring the lifeboat crew's utmost exertion, even to shooting lines over the vessels. One man was drowned by being too hasty. General praise is bestowed, however, on the lifeboat crew.

Several people have asked us how we stand on the political question, and this being our last issue before the election, we will tell them what our political belief and advice is, to wit: For every man to come up and vote according to his own conviction, after mature deliberation.

WHAT YOU SAW 25 YEARS AGO

The large school girls who attend school in "hard scramble" district on the north side of Macatawa Bay cleaned out their school room last Saturday. During the cleaning process they got into a controversy with their teacher, and, as we understand it, got the best of him and commenced to polish him up with the stove brush. He was badly worsted and says that he will never again attempt to dictate to them as to which is the better method of cleaning house.

The progress that the Common Council make in the matter of a system of Water Works is remarkably slow. What the reason is we are unable to say, but it seems to us that valuable time is being wasted and that prompt and decisive steps should immediately be taken. They have before them the plans, as furnished by Mr. Walker, of two different systems. One of these the location of the pumping house and yard is in the western part of town, on tannery creek, the other near the eastern extremity of Sixth street. They have tested the water of both places and found that it was as good as any that could be procured at any point in the city, and also that the supply was undoubtedly sufficient, both for fire and domestic purposes. It would then appear that all the information necessary had been obtained.

WHAT YOU SAW 20 YEARS AGO

Hon. Gerrit Van Schelven, of this city, will address the people of North Holland, Saturday.

No doubt the people of this city will give their fellow citizens, Representative Diekema, and Ex Senator Thos. W. Ferry, of Grand Haven, a loyal reception at the Opera House this evening, Saturday. This meeting is for voters not small boys.

A well known Democrat of Holland went to Grand Rapids with his wife last Saturday and intended to stay over Sunday, but he forgot all about his better half and got aboard the train with the rest of the boys and came home Saturday night. What an absent minded man he must have been.

WHAT YOU SAW 15 YEARS AGO

During the week J. Nies has been getting in his new stock of hardware. It stands to reason that at this hour the many invoices which have been daily accumulating at his double store have not all been arranged. However, the indications are such that this new addition to the trade of Holland will be in every respect a creditable one to the place. Notwithstanding Mr. Nies' residence in Saugatuck, of late years he has always been looked up to more or less, as one of us. This added to his large circle of acquaintances in the territory south of us must inevitably secure him his perata of the trade.

In the new college library building they are about to begin plastering. Outside, in the immediate vicinity of the building, the grading of the ground is nearly done.

Contractor De Vries has increased his force on the Sixth street grading job, and about twenty-one teams are at present engaged on the work. The job includes Columbia avenue from Seventh street to Black river. At some points the profile calls for 18-foot cuts, while the fill in the marsh east of the ashery is also considerable.

ble. When completed this improvement will be one of the most conspicuous in the city, and will virtually relieve the entire locality known as the "fishmarket" of its hitherto isolated condition.

WHAT YOU SAW 10 YEARS AGO

As was estimated in last week's issue of the News the action of the common council of Grand Rapids has caused the abandonment of the projected Grand Rapids-Macatawa electric road. During the week there were some negotiations and propositions and counter-propositions between the Consolidated and Interurban people, but their result was unsatisfactory to the latter and Mr. Hess has sent in a communication to the common council that he and his associates could not accept the ordinance as it was passed last week. This for the present kills the project.

An Enthusiastic Meeting

Preceded by a parade of the local Republican clubs which was a howling success and was the chief source of the noisy enthusiasm of the evening, the Republican rally at the Lyceum rink Saturday proved to be the most successful meeting of the year in Holland. An appreciative audience packed the meeting hall to the very doors, and with a clever pair of speakers in Judge Sadler of Chicago and Grant Fellows of Detroit, the committee concede the rally much better than they expected.

Nearly three hundred marching voters testified to the strength of the Republican sentiment in the city, the Taft club of Hope college and a similar organization made up of the Bush & Lane employees furnishing the feature of the parade with an organized rooting for their favorite in the presidential campaign. The Diekema club furnished a strong contingent.

The parade formed on Columbia avenue and swung down Eighth street at a lively pace, red fire blazing all along the route to the Lyceum rink. The rooting and marching songs of the two clubs were rendered with a zest that swung the bystanders into line and many were unable to get into the hall.

Speaking for more than hour and a half, Judge Sadler proved himself an able orator by holding the attention of his audience to the last. He took up the history of the Democratic party through the years of the Republic, and showed how petty factional dispute and lack of unity and cohesive principles had rendered the efforts of the few really great statesmen who had distinguished themselves in the party since the Civil war almost without results. The Wilson-Gorman bill and the Cleveland administration were cited as examples, and arguments were made to show the inadequacy of the Democracy in its present disrupted state to cope with the national issues were made.

Mr. Fellows took up the general premises of the national issues and explained them, contenting himself with a brief statement of the merits of the Chicago platform. State issues were mentioned only in the relation of loyalty to the party ticket.

The parade was headed by the Citizens band and the Holland Martial band whose drum and fife work made a sensation.

How To Gain Flesh

Persons have been known to gain a pound a day by taking an ounce of Scott's Emulsion. It is strange, but it often happens.

Somehow the ounce produces the pound; it seems to start the digestive machinery going properly, so that the patient is able to digest and absorb his ordinary food which he could not do before, and that is the way the gain is made.

Rah! Rah! for the G. O. P.

The Hope College Taft Club, which marched in the big Republican procession last Saturday night, put a good deal of ginger into their demonstration by their yells and campaign songs. They are printed below. Commit them to memory and give a hearty Rah! Rah! for Taft and the G. O. P.

Raft With Taft

Get on the Raft with Taft, boys,
Get on the winning boat.
The man worth while
With the big glad smile
Will get the honest vote.
We'll save the country sure, boys,
From Bryan, Hearst and graft.
So all join in.
We're sure to win,
Get on the Raft with Taft.

Tune "Redwing"

Oh we don't give a rap
For Bryan's dreaming
For Bryan's scheming
For all his screaming.
For we've chosen a man
Who's never shirking
The evils lurking
Our William Taft.

Two Bills

(tune "Bohunkus")

There was a nation had two sons,
And these two sons were brothers,
Will Taft was the name of one
Will Bryan was the others.

Will Bryan ran for president
Whenever he saw fit;
Will Taft he ran against him once,
And now we know he's fit.

Now these two boys to the white house went,
The one he was a fool;
Will Taft rode on an elephant,
Will Bryan rode a mule.

Bill Bryan ne'er will quit the race
Until he is dead and gone.
His chances ever slimmer grow
As year by year rolls on.

Tune Marching Through Georgia
Sing a song for Taft, my boys,
Sing with all your might;
Taft's the man we want, my boys
This country's trust to fight.

Bryan's has the dreams, boys,
But Taft works in the light.
Come and be game for the right.
Chorus:

For Taft: For Taft:
For William Howard Taft
All essential, presidential enemy of graft.

William Howard Taft.
Bryan had a dream, my boys,
T'was "Shall the people aule?"

Bryan, let me tell you, boys,
Thought every one a fool.
Feed them barrel staves, boys,
And rode them on his mule,
But soon he will lose all his hay, boys.

Rev. and Mrs. Birchby lived in Holland, where Mr. Birchby was pastor of Hope church from 1892 to 1899.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bradshaw Birchby, was born in Sheffield, Yorkshire, England, and spent her early days in the suburbs of that city. When she was in her teens her parents moved to the Isle of Man, where she met her future husband. On July 24, 1884, they were married in Eccles, a suburb of Manchester. Shortly afterward they journeyed to this country, where her husband had prepared for the gospel ministry in Union Theological Seminary.

That's the squarest kind of a square deal as every fair minded man knows. But Walsh Drug Co. can afford to make this offer because they know that Mi-o-na tablets are a worthy stomach remedy, and that the makers will back up the generous offer.

And so we say to all readers of the Holland City News suffering or ailing with any stomach trouble, try Mi-o-na. It has such a mighty and powerful influence on the stomach that it immediately refreshes and relieves, then invigorates and cures.

It strengthens the stomach walls, puts the stomach in such perfect condition that it can digest food without pain or other distressing symptoms. It cures by removing the cause, and it removes the cause 96 times in a hundred.

A large box of Mi-o-na tablets only costs 50 cents, and relief will come in 24 hours.

To the many friends in this city who have been unable to learn any of the particulars of the sudden death of Mrs. H. Gough Birchby, of Peabody, Kansas, formerly of this city, the following extract from the Peabody Gazette will be of interest.

"Last Thursday morning Peabody was inexpressibly startled to learn of the accidental death of the wife of its Presbyterian minister. The saddening news cast a shadow over the whole community, and elicited on every side sincerest sympathy for the pastor and the great church family who are a part of his life.

While preparing to entertain a little company at tea, a pleasure in which her hospitable soul took delight her clothes caught fire in the explosion of the coal-oil can, with which she was kindling the fire. She had warned others against doing this very thing.

Before her passing away she gave a marvellous testimony of the power of conquering faith. Her words will not soon be forgotten by those that were around her. Her whole thought was for those about her and the church. How earnestly she prayed, and tenderly she spoke, and thus her sweet spirit went home. All who have known her, will miss her; to know her was to love her, and those who knew her best, loved her the most. To her husband she was a fountain of joy and a tower of strength; to her friends, she was as sweet as a flower and as true as steel. In the church life she never took a prominent position, but by her natural dignity, she always filled the place of the pastor's wife. She was an earnest devoted Christian from earliest childhood, and her life was one long exemplification of her faith, hope and love.

The funeral was held on Monday afternoon at the church, and was largely attended, notwithstanding the intermittent rain. Rev. John Y. Ewart preached the sermon. Rev. Wm. Baird of Wichita, whose family also came to the funeral made a prayer. The text was from Romans 8:37—"In all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us." The sermon was a strong tribute to the value of a Christian life and faith, and showed how triumphant it had been in Mrs. Birchby's case.

Rev. Birchby briefly addressed those present in words of loving respect and devotion, telling of the beauty of her nature and how much she loved the Peabody church and its people, where she had found a dearer home than any other place they had ever lived.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bradshaw Birchby, was born in Sheffield, Yorkshire, England, and spent her early days in the suburbs of that city. When she was in her teens her parents moved to the Isle of Man, where she met her future husband. On July 24, 1884, they were married in Eccles, a suburb of Manchester. Shortly afterward they journeyed to this country, where her husband had prepared for the gospel ministry in Union Theological Seminary.

Rev. and Mrs. Birchby lived in Holland, where Mr. Birchby was pastor of Hope church from 1892 to 1899.

DEATHS

Mrs. H. Vander Ploeg, formerly of this city, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. P. J. Marsilje in Springfield, Ill., Thursday afternoon. She had been in poor health for the past three years, having suffered a stroke of paralysis. A second stroke occurred Wednesday morning which resulted in death.

Mrs. Vander Ploeg was the wife of the Rev. H. Vander Ploeg, who was at one time pastor of the Vriesland church. After her husband's death in Orange City, Iowa in 1896, she came to Holland, living at 24 East Thirteenth St., with her daughter until they removed to Springfield last fall. She was the aunt of Henry Vander Ploeg of this city. The body was brought to Holland for burial. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from the First Reformed church where Rev. H. J. Veldman and J. F. Zwemer officiated. Members of the First Reformed church acted as pall bearers.

The funeral services of Hattie Holkeboer, the seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Holkeboer, who died at noon Monday at the home of her parents on College avenue, were held Wed. afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home, Rev. D. R. Drnkkr pastor of the Fourteenth street Christian Reformed church officiating.

Mrs. G. H. Tien, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mokma, died at her home, Prairie View, Kansas, aged 39 years. The funeral services will be held today from the home in Prairie View.

The funeral of Adrian Ver Berg, who died last week in the University hospital at Ann Arbor was held Saturday afternoon. Rev. H. J. Veldman officiated at the services and Elder H. Huizenga spoke a few words at the grave. Mr. Ver Berg had been ill for over a year and was taken to Ann Arbor a little over a week ago.

NOTES OF SPORT.

Foot Ball.

Owing to the absence of Van Westenberg and Van Strien no game was played on the college campus Saturday. Next Saturday Ferris Institute will send a strong team here to play Hope. Because of the showing that Hope is making on the gridiron this fall the college team deserves to be liberally supported. With such a team there is no excuse for the management losing money because of poor patronage. Let everyone turn out Saturday and root for Hope.

As in former years two leagues have been organized in the college to decide the class championship in both the college and prep. departments. Captains have been elected and the teams are already picked. The league season will end before the holidays and a championship series will be played between the two winning teams.

Manager Vruink of the regular Hope basketball team is making out his schedule. Games will be played shortly after the Thanksgiving recess.

Growing Children

Need a Streng Building Tonic. Daughter of Mrs. Simmons of Lakewood, N. J., was

RESTORED TO HEALTH BY VINOL

"Our daughter, who is twelve years of age, was in a very run-down condition from fast growing. We were advised to try Vinol to build her up, and after using four bottles she has a good healthy color, is free from nervousness and has gained eight pounds. She is now full of life and ready for out-door exercise, where previously she moped in the house. I can cheerfully recommend Vinol as a first-class tonic reconstructor and one that will do rapidly growing children a world of good." Mrs. T. Simmons, 250 Main St., Lakewood N. J.

This is because Vinol is the best cod liver and iron tonic in the world, does not taste of oil, and has no equal to create strength and build up health for delicate children, feeble old people, weak run-down persons, and after sickness, and is a remarkable cure for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis.

Try Vinol. If it does no good your money will be returned on demand. That's your guarantee, but we know it will benefit any such case. R. M. De Pree & Co., Druggists, Holland.

Excellent Health Advice.

Mrs. M. M. Davison, of No. 379 Gifford Ave., San Jose, Cal., says: "The worth of Electric Bitters as a general family remedy, for headache, biliousness and torpor of the liver and bowels is so pronounced that I am prompted to say a word in its favor, for the benefit of those seeking relief from such afflictions. There is more health for the digestive organs in a bottle of Electric Oil than in any other remedy I know of." Sold under guarantee at Walsh Drug Co's. drug store. 50c.
